After the introduction of ... resolutions and appointment of committees the convention adjourned till afternoon.

The convention reassembled at 2 o'clock. ... Wright was made permanent president. The committee on platform reported the following platform, which was received with enthusiastic applause at the reading of the most radical portions:

The Sundry Civil Appropriation Bill.

The prospects for adoption by the conference committee of the amendments added by the senate to the sundry civil appropriation bill for Pacific coast purposes are to-night very encouraging ... of them. An amendment ... inserted to-day appropriating $50,000 for the construction of a first class lighthouse on ... Head, Oregon. Another amendment to increase the item for the construction of a steam tender for Pacific coast service from $60,000 to $80,000, was excluded on a point of order that it was not recommended by the committee. The same ruling was made concerning an amendment offered by ... providing $20,000 for the survey of a ... route from Austin, Texas, to Topolobampo Bay, Gulf of California.

Defeat of the N. P. R. R. Bill.

The effort to pass the N. P. R. R. bill failed by the remarkably weak vote of only 90 yeas to 127 nays. Davis, Page and ... were recorded in the negative. Williams of Oregon voted for its passage. The result ... so far to overcome the ... of ... and their refusal of ... to done with the Texas Pacific and other ... exists during this session. These interests, therefore, to-night combined with conscientious convictions and other influences, to save the Northern Pacific bill a crushing defeat. It still, however, remains on the speaker's table for possible action next session.

Bills Signed.

The president and cabinet were at the capitol for about two hours this afternoon, and a large number of bills were signed after examination by heads of the respective departments.

Postponement.

Washington, June 19.—Owing to the postponement of adjournment of congress until to-day the Potter investigating committee has further postponed its meeting until to-morrow.

Long Session of a Committee.

Nuptials.

President and Mrs. Hayes will leave this evening after the marriage of Miss Platt for Princeton, N. J., to attend the commencement exercises of Princeton college.

THE EASTERN QUESTION.

Beaconsfield will Remain at the Congress.

London, June 19.—A Berlin correspondent states that Beaconsfield has resolved to remain until the close of the congress.

Debate in the Congress.

Bismarck, in Monday's sitting, sketched a general plan for the arrangement of pending questions and opened the debate on Bulgaria. An animated discussion followed, but no result was reached.

London, June 19.—The congress is expected to last many weeks. Bulgaria is the subject for to-day's session. The Times says it is characteristic of Prince Bismarck that he brought the congress at once face to face with the chief difficulty it has to overcome, for however pregnant the Asiatic question may be with important consequences, nothing compares in immediate importance and in the certainty of its ultimate results with the proposed reorganization of Bulgaria. The question is simply whether Europe or Russia shall exercise the preponderant influence in European Turkey. The congress could not deal hastily or rapidly with a question so important and so complex. Its delays and frequent adjournments, so far from suggesting an unfavorable issue, only show that the congress is a real, not merely formal, assembly, and that it will enter thoroughly into the questions submitted to it. The truth is it would be impossible to bring together a body of such powerful statesmen merely to ratify foregone conclusions. The balance of opinion pronounced at the congress will be quite distinct from the views of particular statesmen. Andrassy still insists that the Russian occupation of Bulgaria shall cease on the conclusion of a definite peace. An authorized contradiction is given the report that the Turkish plenipotentiaries had been instructed to withdraw from the congress and declare that Turkey preferred to abide by the terms of the treaty of San Stefano, if the congress voted to grant autonomy to Epirus, Thessaly, Bosnia and Herzegovina.

Troops Needed at Constantinople.

Gen. Todleben refuses to detach more troops against the Rhodope insurgents in consequence of large reinforcements of Turks which have arrived at Constantinople.

The Sultan Less Fearful.

Constantinople, June 19.—The sultan has in a great measure recovered from his alarm regarding conspiracy.

Turkish Internal Improvements.

Safvet Pasha, with the object of the development of the resources of the empire, is drawing up a document for publication encouraging joint stock companies to solicit concessions from the government for the construction of railways, ports, canals, works of irrigation and manufacturing establishments.

Bismarck's Dog Bites Gortschakoff.

Berlin, June 19.—During the interview Sunday between Bismarck and Gortschakoff the large Danish dog of Bismarck's made a furious attack on Gortschakoff, who was rescued after considerable trouble.

ATLANTIC CABLE.

The English Strike.

London, June 19.—Cotton mills throughout Lancashire reopened to-day and the majority of weavers resumed work. Spinners refuse to resume.

CANADA.

Meeting of the Unemployed.

Montreal, June 18.—Unemployed laborers met again this afternoon and passed resolutions affirming the right to meet and discuss grievances, and condemning the city council for not furnishing them work.

WASHINGTON TERRITORY.

The grain yield of the Swinomish flats will be immense this year.

Between thirty and forty new buildings are going up in Walla Walla at the present time. Among them are a fine new Methodist church.

The men who are at work renewing the telegraph line between Tacoma and Victoria secured a special train for distributing poles along the line of the Puyallup railroad. The wire runs along the railroad as far as Puyallup, where it strikes off to the northward into White river valley.

Water has been successfully reached at a depth of 120 feet in the dry country west of Dayton by a boring machine. In this district is said to be an extensive region of fine and fertile land, lacking only water to make it of great value, but worthless without it. The success of this experiment it is thought will ensure its speedy improvement.

OREGON.

The spire of the M. E. church at Salem will be 190 feet high.

The three bridges which Salem has been building across Mill creek are all completed.

A good many wagons with families are reported on the road from California to Oregon. Several have recently arrived at Roseburg.

Messengers have been sent from Jacksonville across the mountains to Lake county, and settlers in the Klamath country and at all points in Southern Oregon have been apprised of what the Indians are doing.

J. Stahley, chair-maker at Salem, has just received a contract from the government to furnish 2,000 barrack chairs. We understand that 800 of the number are to be used at Vancouver and the remainder are to be shipped to San Francisco. The price to be paid is $20 per dozen.

How a Reporter Spreads Himself.

(Special to Cleveland Leader.)

"Talking about Butler's cross examination of Anderson he says, 'the crafty examiner's evil eyes looked out of the diagonal slits in his face as if he read Anderson's very soul.' Finally, 'like some terrible serpent, which had unawares encircled his victim in its deadly embrace,' he applied the ... of his entire ... and said, 'Well, Mr. Anderson, then this paper (holding up the alleged copy of Sherman's alleged letter) is not a copy after all?' a proposition ... Anderson, by his own answer, was compelled to assent."

The Moral of Oregon.

(From the Springfield Republican.)

The Oregon election is a bad set-off for the Republicans. * * * If the Republican managers are going to make their campaign on the platform of vindicating party hacks whom the Republican voters are sick to death of, they must expect to lose.

CONGRESSIONAL.

Senate.

Washington, June 18.

Mitchell submitted an amendment appropriating $5,244 to pay certain claims for the construction of the revenue cutter Thos. Corwin, at the Oregon Iron Works ...

Morrill submitted an amendment making the necessary appropriation for the purchase of land to increase the width of the roadway around the Washington monument in front of the capitol.

Beck opposed the amendment and advocated the removal of the monument, claiming it was not fit to perpetuate in marble for all time a civil war. It would keep up ill feeling. The amendment was agreed to.

Blaine called attention to the amendment already agreed upon, providing that newspapers should be paid commercial rates for advertising, and moved to amend so as to provide that advertisements inserted by the government since April 10, 1877, shall be paid for at like rates. The amendment was agreed to.

The amendment appropriating $40,000 for the erection of a first class lighthouse at ... Head, Oregon, was agreed to.

House.

The resolution to suspend the rules and go to the speaker's table, that passed last night, having expired with the legislative day of yesterday, was rejected—yeas 131, nays 80—less than the necessary two-thirds. The speaker construed the vote as an indication that he should now recognize members on his private list to move suspension of the rules.

Danford moved to suspend the rules and pass the bill to authorize and equip an expedition to the Arctic seas; defeated.

Townsend moved to suspend the rules and pass the bill to repeal that section of the resumption act which authorizes the sale of U. S. bonds for the purposes of resumption, and to provide that U. S. notes shall be receivable for duties on imports; rejected—yeas 111, nays 123—not two-thirds.

Senate.

Washington, June 19.

Windom from the conference committee on the sundry civil appropriation bill reported that the committee had been unable to agree. On his motion the senate still further insisted upon its amendments to the bill and a new conference was ordered.

House.

Pound rising to a question of privilege said—Last night he moved to pass the bill extending the time for the completion of the Northern Pacific Railroad, that Eden had made remarks in opposition to the bill, which were outrageously incorrect and not supported by facts.

House raised the point that there was no question of privilege involved.

The speaker was about sustaining the point when Eden said—Pound had no right to misrepresent. If he (Pound) was here in the employ of railroad corporations—"Cries of order." Great confusion.

Pound—I demand that the gentleman's remarks be taken down charging me with being in the employ of railroad corporations.

The remarks were written out and read.

Pound—I move that the gentleman, unless he apologizes or retracts, be censured.

Eden—The only thing meant by the remark was that the gentleman appeared as an active partisan of railroad corporations, legislating in their interests, not that he was the employed attorney of railroad corporations.

The speaker inquired if Pound was satisfied.

Pound—I am not. [Laughter.]

The speaker remarked in a conciliatory spirit that he had always believed that remarks which were interdicted were out of order and should not appear in the record, and that, as a controversy had arisen in this matter, everything offensive had better be omitted from the record, as having been said out of order.

Morrison said his colleague, Eden, had stated frankly all he meant, and if the house thought the remarks objected to should be omitted from the record there was no objection to that omission. Finally it was decided that everything which had taken place should not appear in the record.

Southard moved to suspend the rules and pass the following bill: That on and after October 1st, 1878, legal tender notes shall be received at par in payment of customs duties. Agreed to, and the bill passed, yeas 1..., nays ...

Haskell moved to suspend the rules and pass the bill providing that all pensions on account of death wounds received or disease contracted in service of the United States during the late war, shall commence from the death or discharge, and payment of arrears of pension on that principle, and also providing that no claimant shall be entitled to any compensation for making application for arrears of pensions; agreed to, yeas 167, nays 62.

Ewing moved to suspend the rules and pass the bill to retire national bank notes, and substitute treasury notes for them; rejected, yeas 109, nays 111. The result was greeted with applause on the Republican side.

PACIFIC COAST NEWS.

CALIFORNIA.

California Election.

San Francisco, June 19.—Election returns from the interior are coming in very slowly, but all indicate a very light vote and general lack of interest. Advices from Oakland this evening claim that city for the non-partisans. Nevada county is believed to have gone heavily for the Workingmen. Most of the returns thus far are from small insignificant precincts, but the general tenor indicate that the non-partisan ticket has won in the interior.

Stockton, June 19.—The vote is very light. Non-partisans undoubtedly elected.

Marysville, June 19.—Non-partisan, 500 plurality.

Vallejo, June 19.—Probably the Workingmen have carried the city by 100 plurality.

San Francisco, June 19.—Petaluma goes for the Workingmen as far as counted.

Santa Rosa non-partisan.

Tulare county will elect non-partisans. Martinez the Republicans.

Sacramento goes non-partisan; Santa Cruz, Workingmen.

Suffocated.

Bodie, June 18.—James Doyle, miner, was suffocated in the Bodie mine last night. He was a native of Ireland, aged 31 years.

Siskiyou Grain Crops.

Yreka, June 19.—The grain crop in this county will, on the whole, be below the average, but as there was considerable left over from last year there will be plenty to supply all demands. The hay crop will be above the average. No trouble from rust in this county.

NEVADA.

Mortgage Extended.

Virginia, June 19.—An extension of a mortgage given to McCalmont Bros. & Co. of London, by the Sutro tunnel, has just been filed for record. The time is extended to January 1, 1891.

Sutro-Savage Connections.

For some days past heavy blasts in the head of the Sutro tunnel have loosened blocks of rock weighing as much as a ton from the drift which the Savage company is running to connect with the tunnel. The Savage men have been withdrawn from the drift and it is believed connection will be made with the tunnel by the 4th of July.

BRITISH COLUMBIA.

The Shah at Victoria.

Victoria, June 19.—The war ship Shah arrived last night from San Francisco.

Fortification Progressing.

The work of fortifying the harbor is progressing steadily.

A City Loan.

The by-law to raise a new loan on the security of the city revenue was approved by the rate payers yesterday by a majority of twenty seven.

Salmon Fisheries.

The fishery companies on Fraser river are preparing for active operations. The works are very extensive and a large run of salmon is anticipated.

Shipping.

The barkentine Mignon, lumber laden for Shanghae has sailed.

Bark Lady Lampson, wrecked last winter and sold to Welch, Rithel & Co. for $5,500, is now ready for sea.

Another Echo of the General Voice

(From the Chicago Tribune.)

The downfall of Mr. Mitchell in Oregon furnishes additional evidence that the rank and file of the Republican party, if objecting to machine party leaders who wish to subordinate everything to self-interest, cannot be induced to retire by any other means, will throw away power temporarily rather than not free themselves of the incubus. The management of a party by one interested man is not always compatible with its prosperity and success.

The president has nominated Philip Teare, United States attorney for California.

THE INDIAN REVOLT!

Winnemucca's Return

..., June 18.—Winnemucca, the Piute chief, ... into Capt. Barnard's camp last night ... with him a small party of his tribe. Winnemucca ... a similar story regarding designs ... to that of his daughter Sarah.

The Raid on Burnt River.

A dispatch was received here last night from Baker City, Oregon, saying the hostiles had raided Burnt river yesterday, stole 22 head of horses and probably did other mischief.

Troops on the March.

Capt. Bendire's company of cavalry left here early this morning for Olds' ferry on Snake river.

The Shoshones Quit their Reservation and Go on the War Path.

Austin, Nev., June 18.—A rumor is current in town that the Shoshones have left Smoky valley in a body and gone north, headed for Browawa on the Central Pacific railroad. It is supposed they are on the way to join the hostile Bannacks. These Indians have always been well treated by the whites, and cannot have any grievance against the white people. They must in their route north cross the line of the C. P. R. R. somewhere between Battle mountain and Palisade. Large numbers of Shoshones from Belmont, ... and the valleys, here ostensibly in attendance on the fandango, endeavored to purchase powder and lead in large quantities, but were refused by storekeepers who in some instances were warned by officers against selling ammunition to Indians. These Indians have now nearly all left, going in various directions. The Piutes are quiet, but very ... about the war which they profess to deplore.

Reported Raid on Canyon City.

San Francisco, June 19.—A Silver City dispatch says: A messenger from the vicinity of Camp Harney reports serious Indian depredations. A party under Egan have burned Diamond ranch in Happy valley, near Stein's mountain. The Indians have captured over 400 horses. Forty soldiers of the 1st cavalry have gone there to render assistance. Troops and supplies are greatly needed. French and Robb, with their employes, have been driven from Stein's mountains and they report the mountains full of Indians; they also report all their stock killed or driven off and two men shot.

The latest from Col. Barnard's command states that he has a howitzer and three companies of cavalry, and will be reinforced by McGregor before reaching Camp Harney. They are in hot pursuit of the Bannacks.

Gen. Howard sent Grover and three companies of cavalry to Olds' ferry to prevent the Bannacks going north.

Canyon City and vicinity are being raided by Indians. A number of whites have been killed.

Movement and Disposition of Troops.

Boise City, June 19.—The situation is somewhat revived, and reports from the front are mainly of the disposition and movements of troops which are now in Oregon. Very little is directly known there of the whereabouts of the hostiles or their numbers. They are known to have been gone for several days from near Stein's mountain, and are now supposed to be swinging northward toward Baker City, Oregon. General Howard was yesterday at the stone house, near the crossing of Malheur river, with Stewart's command, consisting of the infantry and artillery. Major Downey and Capt. McGregor, with their commands are in the neighborhood of Fort Harney. Col. Barnard with his own and Whipple's command, have gone in the direction of Stein's mountain. Capt. Bendire with his company of cavalry is at Olds' ferry. Major Sanford with volunteers, and Capt. Carr's cavalry are coming this way, on the overland road and will arrive here on Saturday. When here these companies will go to the front under command of General Grover. It will thus be seen that the troops are arriving in the country occupied by the Indians.

The Country Occupied by the Hostiles.

The field of operations is immense, affording many avenues of escape to the Indians, when too hotly pressed in any quarter. From the preparations made to meet them in Oregon, it is not likely that they will remain long in that state. They may be expected at any time to recross Snake river into Idaho and renew their depredations in the rear of the troops. The indications are that all the Indians in Southern Idaho and most of those in Eastern Oregon are with the hostiles. It will prove a difficult task with any considerable body of troops to guard against these raids which may be made by detached bands.

The One-armed Hero at his Post

General Howard is working with might and main to get the troops into a proper position and to perfect a plan of operations.

Volunteers Accepted.

As a means of watching the weak points the commanding general has concluded to accept the services of twenty-five picked volunteers under Captain Merrit Kelly. This company will be composed of the best Indian fighters and the most experienced frontiersmen. They will be furnished rations and arms but will expect no pay for their services. They are to be ready for duty by next Sunday.

A Leading Spirit.

An Indian known as "Buffalo John," the father of Buffalo Horn, is among the hostiles. He is somewhat advanced in years, and possesses all the qualities of a formidable leader of Indians. He is thought to be one of the leading spirits of the revolt.

A Victim's Body Found.

At McDowell's ferry, on Snake river, a day or two ago, the body of an unknown man was found floating down the river, who had evidently been murdered by Indians at some point above. It is not known who the murdered man was.

Silver City, Idaho, June 19.—A dead body supposed to be that of Capt. John White, of Bruneau, was found recently near McDowell's ferry, lower Boise, killed by Indians.

Capt. Woods Justified.

The course pursued by Capt. Woods of the Idaho volunteers in sending back the scouts that Capt. Bainbridge had dispatched from Fort Hall to the hostile camp is justifiable, Woods believing that the whites would murder the Indians if they went forward.

Alarm on Powder River.

There is great excitement in Powder river valley. The settlers have all left their homes and are fleeing to the towns for safety. Troops are concentrating at Camp Lyon and a large portion of them will probably remain there.

Leo Winnemucca Captured.

Leo Winnemucca, on his way to join the hostiles, was captured, with five horses, by soldiers.

An Appeal from Grant County.

The following dispatch appears in San Francisco papers:

White Horse, Grant Co., Or., June 15.

To Major General McDowell, San Francisco: We have not sufficient ... to protect our lives, leaving our homes and our property in the possession of the hostile Indians. For God's sake help us if you can, and we will be thankful. Signed by W. J. Rains, D. M. Bushon, W. Carlisman and twenty-four others.

Queen Victoria.

(London letter to New York Tribune.)

Things have come to the point when the Queen's absence in Scotland is hailed as one of the surest signs of peace. Her hand was never off the pen; Lord Beaconsfield was never tired of flattering her into more and more dangerous courses. Said her majesty the other day: "When Mr. Gladstone was my prime minister, he was always telling me his opinion and the opinion of his country. Lord Beaconsfield asks for the opinion of his sovereign!" So, perhaps, it is as well she has gone to Balmoral.

At a recent meeting of the Millers' National Association in Indianapolis, a report was made recommending that congress be asked to compel every miller to brand his flour with his name and place of manufacture, and to punish severely any person or firm who shall erase or deface a manufacturer's brand.

Put 'em at the Front.

(From the New York Tribune.)

Should there be a general Indian rising the Democratic statesmen who have been trying to cripple the army should be forced to spend the summer in some unprotected spot on the frontier, near the seat of war.

Simon Cameron says that that story of his talking of "them literary fellers" is made out of the whole cloth—he never used the expression and never disliked press men, and was once a press man himself.

The president has nominated Capt. Nickerson, of Gen. Crook's staff, to be assistant adjutant general, with the rank of major.

THE PROBLEM FOR "FRAUD HUNTERS"

(From the Chicago Tribune.)

Democrats that Potter's committee are on a "fraud hunt" to discover how it happened that the bulldozers failed to carry the Republican state of Louisiana for Tilden. Their main witness is "Night-Editor" Anderson of Philadelphia, who is a carpet-bagger in New Orleans. Their witness was the supervisor of the strongly Republican parish of East Feliciana, which he agreed to betray to the Tildenites. This is the way that parish voted in the years named. In 1872 the vote stood thus:

Grant, (Rep)	1,662
Greeley, (Dem)	647
Republican majority	1,015

In 1874 the vote stood thus:

Republican	1,688
Democratic	847
Republican majority	841

In 1876 the vote was as follows:

Tilden, (Dem)	1,736
Hayes, (Rep)	1
Democratic majority	1,735

Which of those elections looks like the one at which the "fraud" was committed? Bear in mind that the registration list made secretly before the last election returned 1,604 Democrats and 2,127 Republicans. How came 2,127 Republicans to poll but 1 vote at a presidential election, and how does it happen that 1,604 Democrats managed to poll 1,736 votes for Tilden & Co? Will some "fraud" hunter explain?

Donn Piatt is now yarning in the Capital about General Grant. He says that a number of capitalists have that redoubtable chieftain in training for the next presidency, keeping him out of the country for a while and yet making him a public character abroad.

THURSDAY MORNING JUNE 20 1878

NO RAILROAD

It is useless to go over again the history of the last several months in regard to the Northern Pacific railroad. The present situation is a result which all persons of sound judgment have foreseen: they knew that a great opportunity was being wasted. No bill has passed. The house [illegible] refused to take up the bill that passed the senate. It is said that the Texas Pacific and similar interests were against it, but this does not fully express the reason of the refusal on the part of the house. The fact is the bill in its present shape is worthless and the real friends of the enterprise are not united in favor of it and did not want it to pass. They desire its amendment, and there was not time to amend. We have now the very result predicted by THE OREGONIAN more than six months ago. The proper plan to get a railroad was not to throw obstacles in its way. Congress has been willing at any time during the long session just closed to pass a bill that would aid the construction of a road, but a chance such as rarely offers and may not offer again has been thrown away. To the dullest perception this will be apparent now. A year has been lost and an opportunity has passed which may never return.

And yet nothing has been plainer than the disposition of congress to pass a proper extension bill. The committees made no objection. With remarkable unanimity the house committee agreed on a bill which conceded to Oregon the road and to Portland the terminus. This report was had months ago. But action in the house was first delayed and then prevented by the fight made in the senate for opposing and chimerical propositions. The result is nothing, and the great monopoly that controls the trade across the continent perpetuates its power.

Even had this bill become a law it would be of no value as it stands to the company or the country. No road could be built under it. Its onerous conditions would forbid such result. The company would be obliged to go to congress at a future time and ask to be relieved from conditions that were hampering its action and preventing its progress. In one sense indeed, it might be of advantage to have passed this bill because such action by congress would keep the subject alive in a certain degree so that the company might go before that body at a future time with better chance of success. But on no other possible ground could this bill be of any use. The effort which has been made pretendedly for a Salt Lake road and for portage roads, an effort which would have been a most commendable one had there been any reasonable prospect of success in the way proposed, tends not in the least to such success nor to the establishment of needed competition on the Columbia river. It proposed no means adequate for such results and at the same time trammeled the Northern Pacific with fatal restrictions. Competition on the Columbia river is one of the great wants of the country, but it will never be secured through a buncombe and inoperative bill. Give the company the land grant on favorable terms and it will be able to build portage roads and ultimately the entire line along the river. But it can do nothing if it be shorn of necessary resources and encumbered with oppressive conditions as to sale and taxation of lands.

The contrast between what we might have had and what we have not is most striking, and it is the more so because this very result was foretold of a policy which wasted time and opportunity, and obstructed desired legislation instead of aiding it. The matter has now gone to sleep for a season, and perhaps indefinitely or forever. Work on the railroad might now be in progress had the obviously proper course been taken. As it is the country is doomed to wait. Monopoly is not broken but continued. Perhaps even those who never before could see it may see it now.

WHAT PARTISANSHIP DID

When partisans in the last congress cut down appropriations on all sides without inquiry whether they were acting upon true principles of economy or not, they were applauded by a portion of our press and urged to persevere. It was claimed that former appropriations had been excessively wasteful. A Democratic congress would show how profligate a Republican congress had been.

The Indian revolt in Idaho, which has now spread to Eastern Oregon, is one of the fruits. For the Indian service appropriations were reduced one third in this spasm of partisan economy. Supplies failed on the reservations. The Indians, regarding themselves as victims of bad faith, have broken out in open revolt. Settlers are being murdered or are fleeing for their lives. Stock is killed or driven off, herders are shot, the country is panic stricken, business is suspended, and even in the towns the people are in painful excitement and alarm.

The fruits of partisanship are often bitter fruits. Here is a case in which this truth is painfully apparent. Partisanship did this for no purpose whatever except to secure an advantage for itself. It hoped to gain the favor of the country by making a show of economy. The object was not the good of the public service but political campaign capital. It has set the Indians upon a general campaign on our borders. Folly must always be paid for. Its consequences sometimes are far-reaching and fatal.

ONE OF THE DEMANDS OF SCIENCE.

Eastern newspapers recently were filled with accounts of and comments upon the great sensation in Cincinnati, the accidental discovery of the dead body of a descendant of ex President Harrison in a dissecting room by his own son while searching for another body also stolen from the grave where it had been deposited. The horror of this discovery has perhaps few parallels in actual experience and even romance [illegible] did not exceed its dramatic intensity. All the circumstances of the case seem to add to and aggravate the horror of the offense and [illegible] under the outburst of public indignation [illegible] all over the country [illegible] universal denunciation [illegible] supplying medical colleges with necessary subjects [illegible] of the best known [illegible] physicians [illegible] our attention [illegible] the subject [illegible] dissect a body however [illegible]

Physicians claim that the law governing these matters imposes hardships upon the profession. They are obliged at the risk of punishment for malpractice to inform themselves as to the anatomy of the human frame and yet they are so limited in their proper means of supplying themselves with subjects that they are in effect cut off from obtaining the information actually required. The only other alternative is that from which honorable men shrink, namely the devising of methods for evading the law and buying whatever they can get hold of, asking no questions, at the full risk of getting their supplies and becoming [illegible] with the [illegible] [illegible] and also such as die in prisons and those [illegible] who have no kin [illegible] Oregon has no statute of this kind [illegible] no way by which the demand of science in this important particular may be supplied. Had we a proper statute on this subject the public would be spared the recurrence of attempts at robbery of the grave which is not only sacrilege but becomes an outrage that outrages the most tender and cherished feelings of our common nature. Proper legislation would not only stop this body snatching so called but would provide for the imperative wants of science. When the legislature meets we shall mention this subject again.

It is spoken of as an apparent paradox to many and as unanswerable proof of fraud that though the Indians are said to be fast disappearing from the face of the earth yet the appropriations for their support are seen to increase steadily from year to year. But this view is based first on mistaken judgment as to the diminution of the Indian races, and second it ignores the fact that as the lands occupied by the Indians are rapidly narrowing in consequence of the encroachment of the whites it therefore is necessary that government expend more for their subsistence at least until they become so established as to be able to provide for themselves. Every year millions of acres are added to the domain of white settlement, and as these vast areas are subtracted from the hunting grounds of the Indian his means of subsistence to which he thinks he has a natural because immemorial right are reduced. Government therefore must feed and clothe him or he will become a bandit and [illegible] take what he can find. For even the Indian who is so useless in the eyes of civilization and whom we would not much regret to see starve is a person of consequence in his own estimation, thinks he has a right to live and will not look with the same indifference upon his prospects of starving as we do.

Gen Grant has written a letter from Paris dated May 20, in which he says: "I have expressed no opinions about the present administration. I have however felt deep regret that the president and the Republican party get along so inharmoniously as they seem to at this distance. It has been my hope that there would be a change in this respect, but I rather give that up now."

Gen Grant clearly has the best of the dispute concerning the Wilderness campaign. Gen Richard Taylor in his last statement says Gen Halleck told him in New Orleans in 1871 or 72 that Grant expressed himself as utterly indifferent to the loss of 100,000 men in that campaign. Gen Halleck died in January, 1872. There is a singular misrecollection on Gen Taylor's part.

The Marysville (Cal) Appeal states that in its section the wheat crop of 1878 will not be over half that of 1877, and the Stockton Independent says that many large fields which till recently promised well will be almost a total failure. California will not have the great crop which has been expected, though undoubtedly the surplus will still be large.

A letter from Douglas county to the Standard urges the election of Gen Lane as United States senator. This may indicate that he will be supported by the Douglas Democratic members.

CITY.

A GOOD MOVE.—At the regular monthly meeting of the Christian Union at the Unitarian church two weeks since a committee was appointed to arrange for a series of papers upon subjects connected with social science, to be delivered before the Union at an early day. The committee has already responses from the following well known gentlemen, who will prepare papers on the topics following their names: D [illegible] on Ventilation and Drainage; D [illegible] on Household Chemistry; [illegible] judge of district court on some [illegible] connected with the development [illegible]; Rev T L Eliot on [illegible]; Prof [illegible] H Crawford [illegible] and Socialism; [illegible] Metric System. Other themes as [illegible] Quackery, scientific [illegible] Reform, the use of stimulants etc will also be presented in due order. We consider the [illegible] most timely and feel confident that the treatment of such subjects by able and well known thinkers and speakers will secure large attention and increased thought on the part of the public in the direction of many social abuses and needed reforms.

SEVERELY BURNED.—[illegible] little daughter of Mr. Sam D Smith, who resides on Fourth street near the corner of Morrison, was severely burned yesterday afternoon. In company with her brother the little girl was playing about a fire which the former had kindled in the yard when the accident occurred. There were also several around the fire. While standing near the fire [illegible] she was accidentally pushed backward and fell so as to ignite her dress which was a [illegible] one. Greatly alarmed, the little girl started for the house screaming as loud as she could. Her mother hearing the child's cries, ran out at the back door just as the little girl came in the front way. The child ran clear through the house and out into the back yard before her mother could reach her. Mrs. Smith, a servant girl and a brother of the child ran to the rescue. They succeeded in extinguishing the flames but not until they had burned their hands in a painful manner. The child is burned severely but not dangerously. Her escape was very fortunate.

MORE INDIAN DEPREDATIONS.—Information from the commanding officer at Camp Harney, received yesterday at department headquarters in this city states reports are constantly received of Indian depredations in that vicinity. A raiding party [illegible] Diamond ranch in Happy valley [illegible] over 400 horses. The commanding officer has sent one officer and thirty men of Co A, 1st cavalry, to render assistance to any endangered settlers. French and Robie have been driven in from Stein's mountain which they report full of Indians. They lost all their stock and two men shot.

EXCURSION.—The steamer Orient, towing the barge Monarch, will make an excursion down the Willamette and on the Columbia river this (Thursday) evening, leaving the foot of Alder street precisely at 7 o'clock. Excellent music and toothsome refreshments will be provided, and no effort will be spared to make the trip a most pleasant one. We are requested to state that the rule excluding disreputable characters will be rigidly enforced, and none such need apply. For further particulars see advertising columns.

LEG FRACTURED.—Tuesday evening an old lady named Adkins, a resident of the west [illegible] part of this city, became so much interested in chasing a rat that she fell from the sidewalk, and lighting on a pile of loose rocks, turned her left ankle in such a manner that one of the bones was fractured. Mr. Adkins' son was standing near by at the time and assistance was immediately procured. Owing to the extreme old age of the patient it will be a long time before she fully recovers the use of her limb.

AN OREGON INVENTION ABROAD.—Mr Wm Kyle, of British Columbia, left here on the steamship Oregon, which sailed hence yesterday morning, bound for Canada taking with him a complete set of models of Mr Plummer's fruit dryer. Mr Kyle purchased the patent right for the dominion of Canada of Mr. Plummer's invention some time last winter. It seems that this valuable invention is coming into general use throughout the United States and Canada.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT.—The Rev John Rosenberg hereby tenders his sincere thanks to the ladies who so generously assisted him in the purchase of ticking for all the beds of the Good Samaritan hospital. The whole amount required was raised in less than two hours, thereby showing the ready response of our citizens to the demands of any truly deserving institution.

HELD TO ANSWER.—The case of state vs [illegible] charged with purloining $5 from Frank Hoblin, came up for examination yesterday in police court. After an examination, the defendant was held to answer the charge before the grand jury.

NOTICE.—The afternoon choral service at St. Stephen's chapel will be omitted until further notice. Morning service as usual at [illegible]

ST. HELEN'S HALL.

The closing exercises at the above school during the last four days have been most interesting. It has been said by many who have had the rare fortune to witness these interesting exercises that with such an institution in our midst organized so thoroughly and with one of the most efficient corps of teachers on the Pacific coast we should not fail any of our daughters abroad to attain that learning which this worthy school is capable of [illegible] We will undoubtedly present [illegible] in the life of many [illegible] when to be calling a future St Helen's Hall will be as proud a title as that of many older and at present more celebrated institutions. The standard in this school is higher than that usually found in girls' schools and the advantages for acquiring practical as well as thorough Christian education are here unsurpassed.

To-day being the last of these examinations preparatory to the beginning of the summer vacation there will be an address by the bishop and the award of diplomas to two young lady graduates. It is to be hoped that all who have not already attended will not fail to do so to-day and thus show their appreciation of this worthy Oregon school and one of which no Oregonian need blush.

Before the closing exercises an exhibition of the drawings and paintings [illegible] is well worth the attention of all lovers of the fine arts. A more creditable display has never before been made in Oregon. [illegible] the walls [illegible] academy [illegible] a thing of beauty and a joy forever.

Wheat.

The reports from different points of the coast both in California and this state, denote that the yield will fall somewhat below the expectations which have been generally expressed. The crop will be very large it is true: in California perhaps nearly three times as great as in [illegible], and in Oregon [illegible] per cent. greater, but the latest advices from the golden state say the out turn as far as the harvest has progressed falls materially below the estimates. In Oregon the [illegible] and hot weather has stunted the plant, and if rain is not had within a few days, or a fortnight at most, there will be a much lighter crop in many sections than has been counted on. This, however, is not applicable to the country east of the Cascade mountains, where the crop is still reported to be in a promising condition. Our dispatches from abroad indicate a continued depression in the market and but little or no prospect of immediate improvement. The English crops are evidently going to turn out short, and some basis for a hope of better prices by and by may be found in this fact, but that is somewhat remote, as the shipments into that country are reported to be very heavy at present.

The local market is very quiet, but few contracts for new crop being made, and offers for old ruling below the views of buyers. Millers are purchasing somewhat sparingly, being desirous of making their stocks come out as nearly even with the end of the harvest year as possible. Prices are in a large degree nominal and without change.

English Crops and Markets.

LONDON, June 18.—The Mark Lane Express says the standing crops are all suffering from continued wet and cold. The excessive humidity of the past six weeks has seriously compromised agricultural prospects. Until within the last few days growing crops in Scotland did not suffer as much as in England. Now, however, matters have changed to the worse. Floods have occurred in many of the low land districts doing vast damage.

The London corn trade has been very quiet, transactions mainly retail. Any elements of strength, which, under ordinary circumstances would have been apparent, have been totally eliminated from trade by exceedingly heavy arrivals from abroad, and values have consequently evinced a declining tendency. Indeed, all classes of foreign wheat have only been salable at a reduction of fully a shilling in a fortnight. Nor has the concession attracted any improvement in the demand as buyers do not appear to think the lowest is touched, and consequently have abstained from purchasing except in such quantities as immediate needs dictated. The necessity of rapidly clearing grain laden ships in port has therefore caused most of the corn to be put in granaries which are rapidly filling up. The augmentation of stocks will probably be considered as enormous. Shipments of wheat and maize from America are flooding the market just at the time when buyers seem least disposed to operate.

Political influences having ceased to affect trade, an index as to the future course of prices must be looked for to the legitimate action of supply and demand, and although at the moment great depression prevails and values may possibly recede, yet further increased activity and healthier trade, no doubt at low range of values, may be confidently expected when the bulk of American shipments is received and peace settled. With large arrivals at ports of call, the floating cargo trade for wheat has been dull at about a shilling decline. Maize has given way fully six pence. Barley fairly steady.

New York Freights and Markets.

NEW YORK, June 18.—The weather has been disagreeable and very little done at [illegible] of Pacific coast bound ships.

Market generally is very quiet and the usual rumor of dullness is at hand, it being too late to forward goods via Cape Horn to meet fall trade, and too early to meet winter trade. Rates steady at late quotations.

The General McClellan is the most advanced vessel on the berth and will get off in a day or two. The Hecla will get off in the course of ten days.

Steamer freights rather quiet, and the next boat will not have a full list for the California market. In addition to 10,000 tons rails noted a few days since as being contracted for, the Central Pacific railroad have bought 6,000 tons steel rails, a third of which have already been shipped, the balance to go forward immediately. The last lot is to replace iron on the Central road.

NEW YORK, June 19.—In the freight market there is very little to note, shipments being moderate and of heavy goods chiefly by regular shippers. Dry goods shipments are falling off very much, as the season is about over, and at the moment there does not appear to be any other class of freight to supply their place.

Rates remain quite steady, but in view of the dullness of the market, the effort to advance them does not progress.

Boston Wool Market.

BOSTON, June 19.—Wool, very little doing; buyers continue quite indifferent, and from present indications the new clip will pass very slowly into the hands of dealers and manufacturers. The woolen goods market is in such an unsatisfactory state that manufacturers have no courage to buy wool to any extent ahead. Spring California in fair demand at 20@28c; mostly 22@26c, and fall at 15@16c.

Shipping Intelligence.

DR. PAUL M. BRENAN.

His Wonderful Success
IN THE TREATMENT OF ALL
Chronic and Difficult Diseases.

He has astonished the People of this Coast by his skillful Operations.

HE HAS TAUGHT IN HIS public and private lectures the true principles of health and life to both male and female. He has also warned them against habits that would be likely to produce disease, in plain and comprehensive language. But where he has found them crushed and broken down by disease, mentally and physically, he has restored them to health and happiness, for it is well understood that without health there can be no happiness.

has made a specialty in the treatment of the following diseases: Catarrh, Bronchitis, and all diseases of the throat and chest, by an entirely new system only known to himself. Diseases of the Kidneys and Urinary Organs, including Spermatorrhea, Seminal Weakness or premature loss of Manhood. In the treatment of these diseases he has made a world wide reputation by his astonishing success, not only on this Coast but throughout the whole United States. Diseases of the stomach, bowels, liver and kidneys as well as all diseases of the blood and skin he has become master of, and never fails to give relief at once, and permanently cures the case if he is applied to in time.

THE DOCTOR HAS GIVEN SPECIAL LECTURES to ladies only for years and is perfectly familiar with all female complaints, and understands their delicate and refined organization, as well as the proper remedies which should be used to allay their suffering and restore them to perfect health.

THE DOCTOR HAS THIS ADVANTAGE

over most physicians—he can tell the patients' disease the moment he comes in contact with them without any aid from the individual. This accounts in part for his great professional success.

All surgical operations can be performed by his skillful hand, and the patient need not fear the result.

will send to those living at a distance and who cannot well visit his office a list of Printed Questions and by the answers when filled out he can tell the disease as well as the proper treatment almost as well as seeing the patient personally, and will forward the proper medicines, or instruments, to any part of the country with full instructions and advice. Each letter requiring advice or list of questions, must contain two postage stamps.

Everything strictly confidential and honorable.

THE DOCTOR

has studied in the best Medical Schools in Europe and three years in the Jefferson Medical College at Philadelphia, as more than one of the Medical men of the Medical Faculty in this State can testify.

CAUTION.

Persons coming to Portland, requiring medical treatment of the proper kind, who desire to consult with me, will please beware of persons who may try to coax them away to other so-called Doctors, through pretended friendship for the patients. Look out for them; they are knaves, prompted by selfish motives and what they can make. Be sure and ask for DR. PAUL M. BRENAN, the Medical Lecturer, and read his sign on his door.
